Foreword

At last the "Oriole" has been completed. The annual staff has worked long and hard to complete it, but we have learned much and have truly enjoyed our work.

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. M. A. Ulland, our advisor, for his help in making this annual possible, and to Mrs. Kongslie, our principal, for her co-operation.

With satisfaction the Class of 1966 presents this annual - not only as a record of 1966 - but as a permanent and lasting treasury of the golden moments of our high school years.

Junior Mothers preparing our banquet.

Better make it look nice.

Can't you stretch a little higher?

Hard at work?

Stunned!

The seniors bid their last farewell to teachers, friends, and classmates by singing their class song which was to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne."

Junior-Senior Banquet 1966

Theme: "Paradise Isle"

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held May 12, 1966, with the Junior Mothers serving a very delicious meal consisting of baked ham, mashed potatoes, corn, fruit salad, carrot and celery sticks, coffee, milk, and sherbert.

Some events of the banquet were the reading of the senior class history, will, poem, and prophecy. A junior class quartet composed of Marilyn Hill, Carolyn Hill, Mary Long, and Marsha Shoemaker closed the program by singing, "After the Ball." Their accompanist was Barbara Miller.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held May 13, 1966, in the nicely decorated gym. The theme was, "Paradise Isle."

In Memoriam

Bruno Rosenau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Rosenau, met death in an automobile accident on February 5, 1966. Bruno graduated with the senior class of 1965.

SOMEWHERE THERE IS NO PARTING

Somewhere there is no sunset,
Somewhere it's always dawn;
Somewhere no clouds obscure the blue,
Somewhere each shadow's gone.
Somewhere there is no parting,
Or sorrow, tears, or pain,
And there your loved one waits the day,
When you will meet again.
